Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. What is the difference between online payment using payment gateway at the site of Resonance vis a vis making the online payment using the NEFT Mode going through the web site of the respective bank ?

Ans. Technically both the mechanisms are identical and similar and in both the modes the login and password of your net banking will be required. In case of payment gateway the extra step of creating and adding beneficiary i.e. 'Resonance Eduventures Limited' is not required. In addition, the payment gateway mechanism makes a direct route of transfer of amount from your bank account to the bank account of Resonance, which makes it relatively simpler and faster. In addition, we may keep a quick track of the receipt or failure of the amount for a quick confirmation to you. Therefore, we advise you to prefer the payment gateway route as compared to NEFT route.

2. If we encounter difficulty or failure of technology in executing the fee payment using the payment gateway or NEFT whom should we approach for the necessary assistance?

Ans. You may call up on 1800 258 5555 for necessary assistance in this matter. Alternatively, you may mail for the required assistance on fee@resonance.ac.in.

We, on receipt of the same, quickly (preferably on the same day if received by 12.00 p.m. or otherwise next day) send the same to the respective Bank for amount of transfer of fee amount from your account to the account of Resonance. Our team will send a confirmation of such credit in our account through SMS to you on the mobile number of the Account Holder provided on the DI Form.

4. This form is in three copies – which copy to be sent and which one to be kept by us?

Ans. The first copy (original copy in white colour) is Bank's copy and second copy (in green colour) is Resonance copy. The third copy is in yellow colour, which is your (parent's) copy. These are in self carbon form and have to be filled putting all together and filling up the white (original copy). The other two copies will, on its own carry the writing impression. The white (original) and green (second) copies are to be inserted in the self addressed envelope and the third copy (the yellow colour copy) is your copy which you will keep with you.
